The most popular races were El-Brim-Ick and the June Krunce with 16 runners in both races. Cairn William; Pittenderich and Bennachie all attracted 12 club members.

The least popular were Tap o'Noth, with only 6 club runners; Ben Chonzie with 7 runners; and Ben Rinnes with only 4. The first is surprising but the latter two less so due to travel distance (Ben Chonzie) and level of difficulty (Ben Rinnes).
